NEVADA CITY

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
—AND—
FIFTY YEARS AGO

NEVADA CITY 75 YEARS AGO

The storehouse of Mr. Houston who resided on the Blue Tent road was entered and five hams and the same number of shoulders and sides of bacon were stolen together with an overcoat. The robbers were barefooted and were tracked into town down Broad St. to the head of China St. Constable Gray made a diligent search in Chinatown but the missing articles were not to be found. The impression was that the robbers were Indians who took the road to the head of Commercial St. doubled on their course to the edge of town and proceeded out to the Indian campoodie.

William Astin got a shot at a Chinese chicken thief who was attempting to rob the chicken roost of his uncle, Barne McLean. He thought from the manner in which the John made tracks he must have warmed his jacket.

Mr. F. Powers principal of the high school, was announced as a candidate for oounty superintendent of schools. M. L. Marsh was announced as a candidate for supervisor and L. Nihell was announced as candidate for road commissioner.

Notice was given that an election of Chief Engineer of the Nevada Fire Dept. was to be held at the marshal's office. Polls were to be open from 5 to 8 p. m. Judges for the election were C. T. Canfield and D. B. Getchell, clerks were O. E. Tompkins and William Scott.

The Sewing Society of the Episcopal Church met at the residence of Mrs. E. P. Marselus.

A large number of persons attended the picnic at Schardin's place at Newtown. Every vehicle and horse in this city was in service. Several accidents occurred to parties enroute but no one was hurt. A. Rosenthal had a breakdown, one of the wheels of his buggy giving out. A horse attached to a buggy driven by K. Casper and Jake Rosenthal shied on the bridge, ran into a bank and upset the buggy, spilling the occupants.

Members of the Nevada Fire Dept. met to make arrangements for the 4th of July celebration. C. W. Cornell was elected chairman and John Clark secretary. The following committees were then named: Reception committee W. B. Gethell, A. P. Davenport, O. E. Tompkins, C. T. Canfield, Jake Hahn, Chas. Sayers, Soliciting ommittee: Wm. R. Coe, Napoleon King, Thos. Flowers. Collation committee: John F. Hook, C. W. Cornell, Thos. Flowers, C. T. Canfield, A. P. Davenport and Napoleon King.

NEVADA CITY 50 YEARS AGO

Health Officer J. E. Isaac and Marshal Getchell were aronnd town explaining the sanitary condition of the city. They found numerous places where privy vaults were in such bad condition as to menace the health of the people living in the neighborhood. In fact such was the case in the majority of places visited. Isaac and Getchell warned all property owners that where complaints were filed they would be held to answer.

It was believed that the Fourth of July celebration in Nevada City would be worth traveling 500 miles to witness. It had been learned that all towns north and east would be depopulated on that day as the people had made arrangements to come to Nevada City. Miss Adelaide Farnum a young lady of Grass Valley, had been invited by the literary committee to read the Declaration of Independence. Marshall Getchell had appointed ten or twelve stalwart deputies to march with him in full uniform in advance of the procession after the style of the big parades in the large cities. Rev. W. C. Gray of the Methodist Church and Rev. J. Sims of the Congregational Church were to be the chaplains.

George Allen had received two monkeys from San Francisco and had them in his saloon opposite the Uuion Hotel.

The closing ceremony will begin at 2:30 p. m. with presentation of awards. Catholic Scouts will attend mass.

In charge of the camporee are L. W. Reynolds, chairman of the committee and H. J. Nile chairman, Grass Valley district activities committee.

MRS. E. HANCOCK SEEKS TO ADOPT DESERTED BABY

Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen and his deputies are trying to find a clue to the identtiy of the person, woman or man, who left an emaciated baby Sunday afternoon at the door of Mrs. Evah Hancock who leaves on the Colfax Road at Cedar Ridge.

The baby is now in the Community Hospital under care of Dr. Orvin T. Fry. He reports the baby is a red headed little boy and all skin and bones when received at the hospital. Mrs. Hancock is anxious to adopt the child and yesterday consulted with the district attorney, Ward Sheldon regarding the steps to be taken.

The sheriff's office reported that there were no clues to the child's identity found on its clothes, such as laundry marks.

FOUR PICKETS PLACED ON SUGAR PINE SAWMILL

There are now four AFL pickets employed in patrolling the road above Washington, 17 miles east of this city near the junction of the road leading into the Tahoe Sugar Pine Company's sawmill.

The mill according to District Attorney Ward Sheldon has resumed operations with a mill crew, replacing those who walked off the job last week when the mill foreman, Paul K. Cullen was discharged.

According to officials of the company the men attempted to flag down trucks passing through their line maintained at the South Yuba bridge but are offering no impediments to business as usual. The pickets are said to be members of an AFL carpenters union of Grass Valley and Nevada City.

Ten members of the sawmill crew walked off the job last week and later allegedly stoned an army car used for transporting workmen from Nevada City to the mill and occupied at the time with employes who had refused to quit when the protestants were arrested on charges of rioting and are now out on $500 bail each, awaiting their preliminary hearing.

PERMANENT LODGE IN SIGHT FOR NEVADA CITY GIRL SCOUTS

Residents of Nevada City and Grass Valley interested in establishing a permanent camp for the local Girl Scouts took a long step foreward in achieving their aims when they received assurance last week that a site at Scotts Flat Dam five miles from Nevada City might be available.

Wm. Durbrow, manager of the Nevada Irrigation District stated in a letter to scout executives that the matter of using a site, including buildings for Girl Scouts of the two cities had been discussed at the last meeting of the board of directors and that no objections to such an arrangement appeared.

He said in the message that details would have to be worked out. The buildings in question were erected prior to the war for the use of construction crews. It was specified that these structures would be retained by the irrigation district until the dam was complete. Probable conditions of the arrangemens to be made at a later date were set forth as follows: The probable conditions would be that the Girl Scouts would have to maintain the buildings in lieu of rental, provided the buildings are used exclusively for such public purposes as the Girl Scouts represent. Durbrow closed the letter with a note of regret that he could not be more definite at this time.

Those familiar with the spot state the present buildings offer some excellent features. Roof repairs are indicated and a pressure system for water will be needed.

The campers may enjoy the Scotts Flat waters for boating but cannot swim there. Competent parties have given assurance that a private pool may be had without great cost. This will undoubtedly become a matter for consideration in the future.

The location is not far from Nevada City approximately five miles on good road. It has been understood that while the Girl Scouts will have charge of the camp, the facilities may be used by other civic bodies of the two towns.

Lake Vera has long been a favorite summer rendevous for campers from Sacramento, the bay area and elsewhere. The entire lakeshore has been purchased by Girl Scouts and Camp Fire girls of the distant localities and local young peaple have been invited to participate when the camps were not too crowded. This has made summer outings available in short periods to a limited few.

The Girl Scouts in the two communities are now well established and have a record of years of activity behind them. The council in Nevada City was first set up in 1939 and the city contributed a meeting place in the fire house three years ago. Grass Valley has a newly formed administrative group which does not indicate newness on the part of scouting in that region but only another step in handling the growing membership. Latest count of registered girls put the fgiure at over 200 for the two towns.

Youth minded residents and civic groups have long backed the girls. Evidence of this may be seen in the carnival set for Friday evening and put on by the Business and Professional Women of Nevada City. They have taken the initiative in this money making project that funds may start accumlating toward the Scotts Flat camp.

Details of administration of the project have yet to be worked out. Final arrangements must wait completion of the dam itself.

CAR OVERTURNS RECKLESSNESS CHARGED CAUSE

A charge of reckless driving with injury was filed Monday morning against Francis O. Peters as a result of the accident which occurred at 3:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon on the Nevada City-Grass Valley highway on the turn near Glenwood Road.

Peters, who resides at Glenwood Road, maintains his speed was between 30 and 40 miles per hour, but his passengers say he was going faster. Dennis Smith, 17, Nevada City youth and J. L. Johnson 35, of 98th Avenue, Oakland were both cut and bruised. They were taken to Miners Hospital in Nevada City for X-ray examination. Eugene Hatch 17 and Dave Southern 16, both of Nevada City were uninjured.

Bill Pohley To Be Life Guard

The Nevada City council has appointed William F. Podley to be life guard at the municipal pool in Pioneers Park at a salary of $150 a month. He will attend a special school of instruction in Sacramento given in life saving by the Red Cross.

Edward LaRue who is applying for a permit to erect a sawmill on the old Narrow Gauge Railroad depot site which he now owns, presented the council with drawings showing the construction of a new and improved burner which he said will eliminate the smoke nuisance. At the last meeting of the council a petition was handed them protesting the erection of a sawmill in the residence district. There were 122 names attached to the petition most of them residents of Prospect Hill which will be immediately affected.

Plans for extending A Street from Nihell Street to the Nevada County Hospital Road were examined. The council will make an estimate of costs before opening a street that has not been used since early days.

G. V. GUILD SPONSORS WHIST PARTY

St. Catherine's Guild of Grass Valley sponsored a whist party Wednesday night in the Episcopal Parish House on South Church Street. Mrs. Edna McGrath was in charge of the event

U.S.N. JOHNSON MADE DAIRY MONTH CHAIRMAN

The appointment of U. S. N. Johnson as chairman of the June Dairy Month committee in Nevada county was announced today by Alfred N. Ghormley chairman of the California Dairy Industry Advisory Board, who heads up the Dairy Month campaign in California.

Grass Valley's Police and Fire Departments are more than somewhat annoyed at unknown hoodlums, who for the second time in a week have turned in fake fire alarms. The alarm Monday night, turned in from Main and Alta Streets, not only drew the entire fire department personnel but interrupted the Firemen-Elks softball game at Memorial Park. A description of the three anonymous would-be humorists was secured and the police are looking for them.

BPWC CARNIVAL FRIDAY NIGHT

The Nevada City Business and Professional Women's Club is making final plans for the carnival to be held Friday evening, June 14th, in Pioneers Park for the benefit of the Girl Scouts Lodge at Scotts Flat.

The Nevada Irrigation District recently granted the Girl Scouts use of the buildings there, which were occupied by crews engaged in stripping the damsite of trees four years ago.

For the first time the BPWC is making the annual carnival an affair open to the public so that as large a sum as possbile may be raised for the Girl Scouts.

RED HAIR WAIF MAY SURVIVE ABANDONMENT

The red haired infant boy, three months old found on the doorstep of Mrs. Evah Hancock Sunday evening, is holding its own according to Dr. Orvin F. Fry. He states the baby only weighed 6.10 pounds when brought to the Community Hospital in Grass Valley.

Sheriff Carl J. Tobiassen said that he was bending every effort to trace the persons presumably parents, who abandoned the child but is handicapped due to the fact that the clothing on the infant when abandoned bore no laundry marks whatever, though apparently clean from home laundering. The clothing consists of a soft white belly band, a white dress, a white petticoat, and soft white undershirt. There were no diapers. Wrapped about the child when found was a blue and white cotton baby blanket. On this and on none of clothing was the slightest mark that might afford a clue.

District Attorney Ward Sheldon states that he had been trying to reach the Social Welfare Bureau, Adoption Department in order to expedite application to adopt the abandoned waif.

Memorial Park Out Of Bounds For Whiskerinos

Wild driving on the part of "barefaces" seeking to escape the Whiskerino "sheriff's" posse led the Grass Valley city council to declare Memorial Park out of bounds for Whiskerino raids.

Other business at the council session was authorization to repaint the swimming pool in accordance with state health requirements. Current projects are improving the city pound and removing brush from the city reservoirs. A meeting "to iron out city insurance problems" was called or June 18 and all Grass Valley insurance agents were invited to appear before the council at that time.

Police Chief Ben Jenkins reported recommendations of the governor's safety council and secured the council's approval of a policy that local policemen should not be made objects of Whiskerino fun-making.

The council approved a plan submitted by Dan C. Stewart for a memorial in the city park to Allison F. Watt. The monument is to be a granite shaft, with twin drinking fountains at the base. Cost is estimated at $1700 which is provided in the Watt estate.

Death Of Sierra City Women May Result In Inquest

Whether an inquest is held on the death of Mrs. Mary Fletcher who died in the Miners Hospital here Monday, Coroner Alvah Hooper states depended upon evidence gathered by the Sierra County authorities in Sierra City, where on June 2, Mrs. Fletcher according to her own story before she died, had suffered a fall down a flight of steps at the back of her home.

Hooper said that an inquest will not be held here. He was of the opinion that the woman's death was accidental and he was not impressed with the story circulated in Sierra City that she had been beaten. He said the bruises upon Mrs. Fletcher's arms and legs could easily have been caused by a fall down a flight of stairs.
